SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts 4:20

It was a grand wedding and, following the wedding, a grand reception. Tuesday night, when Miss Minor Hill became, by virtue of words by Preacher Clarke of the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. William D. Parker of Greenwood. The bride was pretty and handsome; the groom, handsome, but a little shaky. As the usher seated us off in the Sunday School room, I could not see much of the ceremony on account of intervening ferns and folks, but am sure it was a grand ceremony. In fact, everything was grand, even Dr. P. S. Hill who gave the pretty bride away. For my money Mary Jane Green's little boy stole the show as ring bearer.

The reception, following the church wedding was at the Monte Cristo Restaurant and, it, too, was a grand affair. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs Frank Hill, Mrs. Parker, the groom's mother, the bride and groom and John Bradley's married dauchter all very fine folks all handsomely arrayed in fine linen, etc.

In the stir following the evacuation I got a hat belonging to somebody else. It is a Pedigree hat sold by Heath Bros., a damsite better hat than I wore to the reception

I have not mixed and mingled with so many of the idle rich since I made a recent trip, spent in the clubcar on the Panama Limited, tho I had a damsite more to drink on the Panama, and nothing at the reception.

Sincere best wishes to both bride and groom.

Off to another subject. I may be wrong, but I am honest in my opinion that we have had here in Grenada more 'stew' and to-do between white officers and colored people in the past 6 months than we ever before had in Grenada. Whether this increase in to-dos and stew is due to the increasing 'meanness' of the Negroes or increasing hardness toward the Negroes by the white officers, I am not in position to say. I am going to drag up a suggestion I have made many times in the past The suggestion is this: get at least two good Negro patrolmen to serve primarily in the colored section of town Our Chief of Police, Mr. Crumby, has been on the force in Memphis and, in my opinion, he is fully competent to select and train two such officers.

While on this subject, I want to congratulate Sheriff Davis, or whoever it was who had it done, on having both a colored doctor and a white doctor pass on the post-mortem of the colored boy found drowned in the river. There has just been too much talk and stir about this affair, into which it was published that the FBI was nosing in.

I think Chumby, the police chief, is a good, honest, competent officer, but I also think that he, someway or another, got off on the wrong foot in Grenada. I dont know how or why There are two suits in Circuit Court against him and there was a lot of 'talk' about him in this recent case of the drowned Negro boy. These suits may be won by Crumby; certainly, the verdict of the coroner's jury evaporated the 'talk' in the case of the drowned Negro boy.

I imagine you, like I, have been puzzled about what the legislature trying to do in Jackson. I talked to a competent member of that body and I am not going into a long-winded dissertation on the matter. But, in general, I think the state is fixing to try to reduce the number of schools by making consolidations of many of the small schools thus having ONE good school in an area rather than MANY small, sorry schools. This consolidation will be done in both white schools and Negro schools. Instead of kids having to walk to a poor school, the kids will RIDE to a better school. If this scheme is put into effect, the change will be better for the Negro kids than for the white kids, until the Negro kids sorter catch up. The legislative effort seems to be making a sincere, if belated effort, to provide equal but separate facilities for the kids of each race. In view of the probability of the supreme court kicking out segregation in the schools altogether, it seems to be the view of the legislature to cross THAT bridge when it shows up. This paragraph dont make much sense, of course, but it does show about what I gathered from a talk with a competent man in the legislature.

For the po' folks who can not afford to spend big money to send out Chistmas cards, we have boxes of cards, good enough for po' folks, at a dollar a box, your name printed on each card. If you want to be hi' falutin' and have some hi' falutin' cards, we can order you some quick for a helluva lot more money. We have about 200 boxes of cards for po' folks and they already have started to 'go.'

We had so many paid ads this week that we could not find room for over half the 'What They Are Thankful For' items already written.

LAKE FURNITURE SOLD AT AUCTION TUESDAY

12 Cousins To Share Equally In Estate

The administrators of the estate of the late Dr. Golliday Lake auctioned off Dr. Lake's visitor's card tray and other personal effects in the Lake home on Margin St. Tuesday.

The card tray hasn't been needed for about 25 years. It wsa that long ago that Dr. Lake's sister, Mrs. Minnie Barbee, was murdered. After her death, Dr. Lake moved out into a trailer in the back yard and no more callers were received in the old mansion.

Many buyers and more just lookers were present at the auction. They came at their own risk. At the front door a sign was posted which read: 'The Lake Estate is not responsible in anyway in case of accident of any nature. You enter at your own risk.'

Keene Huffington of Grenada and Donelson M. Lake of Memphis were administrators of the estate which has been valued at a rather surprisingly high sum. There are 37 rental units included in the estate as well as the about one acre lot on which the house is located, also cash, personal efects such as jewelry and furniture. Twelve cousins will share equally in the estate since Dr. Lake died without a will.

Shorty Jones bought one of the best preserved of the antique bedroom suites for $225. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hardy were the successful bidders on some very nice looking old parlor chairs.

Among the hundreds of personal it ems auctioned off, these are a few a 4:15 carat man's diamond ring, slave bell, family Bible, Bohemian oil lamps, rosewood grand piano, many watches and rings, ironstone bowls, hand made quilts, gold leaf mirrors, a sulky (old type baby carriage), a wig dresser, booden buckets, etc.

Mrs. Moskopitz of Natchez, an antique appraised the value of the furniture. Ohters helping determine the value of the efects were William Wright, Mrs. Ben McElwrath, and Mrs. George Garner.

Heirs are: Mrs. Louise Jordan of Grenada, D. M. Lake and Miss Estelle Lake of Memphis, Mrs. W. H Givens of New York, Mrs. Grace Huntley of Long Island, N. Y., Mrs. Lee D. Jones of Memphis, Robert P. Lake of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Dorothy L. Brabant of Memphis, Mrs. Robert S. Henderson of Jackson, Tenn., Mrs. Alice L. Morson of Berewyn, Tenn., Mrs. Elvin W. Gilmore of Oak Park, Ill. and Chrales H. Lake, Memphis.

Many oh'ed and ah'ed over the furniture and one man said it looked like it belonged in the trash can.

A Bit Of History (By WWW)

The time is rapidly approaching when the so-called old Holcomb bridge will be abandoned and it will then be over what will soon be called 'the old river' run.

My memory told me that this bridge was built some time about 1900. I looked in the official proceedings of the Grenada County Board of Supervisors and found the following facts at the board's November, 1900 meeting a contract was let to the Virginia Bridge and Iron Company of Norfolk, Va. to build this bridge. The contract specified that the job must be finished by September 1, 1901. The company would pay $50 a day for every day completion was delayed beyond Sept. 1, 1901. The county agreed to pay $18,300 to the bridge company, which made abondo$736,600 for faithful execution of its contract.

At that time, the following men were on the county board of supervisors: S. T. Tatum, Beat 1: President; J. H. James, Beat 2: A. M. Anderson, Beat 3: W. R. Baker, Beat 4: G. W. Woods, Beat 5. G. B. Jones, Sheroff, Jihn S. King was Chancery Clerk.

At that time, 1900, this was a major undertaking for Grenada County. Building this bridge eliminated two ferries, Chocumma and Tuscahoma, the first owned by Major Duncan, the second by George Terrell. The Peavine railroad had just been built; the town of Holcomb established, and the town of Parsons, once a flourishing place, going into decline.

'Accidental Drowning' Is Coroner's Verdict

'Death by accidential drowning' was the Coroner's verdict concerning the death of Sammie Lee Bland, 19 year old Negro, who body was recovered from the Yalobusha River at 8:30 a. m. Monday after being in the river since Tuesday, Nov. 10.

Present at the coroner's inquest were two doctors, Dr. L. L. Rayford, Negro, and Dr. R. A. Clanton who is also mayor. Also present were: Sheriff S. L. Davis, Chief of Police E. M. Crumby, Policeman Sam Ferguson, Coroner Ward Alexander, Fire Chief A. M. Juchheim.

U. S. Engineers, working on the fill of the river, found the body in a spot about 100 feet from where the Negro was last seen when going down. The spot in the river was about 12 feet deep.

The two doctors further reported that there was no sign of violence of any kind on Bland's body.

According to Policeman Crumby and Ferguson, Bland was drunk and attacked Ferguson. When Mr. Crumby arrived to help Mr. Ferguson, Bland ran into the river, according to the Policeman.

DAVID MAXEY'S PRIZE COTTON PATCH

$1900 In Prizes Awarded At Harvest Festival
David Maxey Is Champion Cotton Man 2 Years In Row

Climaxing the second annual Grenada County Harvest Festival held Saturday at the Fairgrounds was the awarding of $1900 in prizes to farmers who excelled in cotton and corn production during the past year.

The festival, sponsored by the C. of Commerce, featured a speech by Sen. John Stennis and a free barbeque. About 1500 people attended.

David Maxey, 21 year old son of Vernon Maxey of the Oxberry Community, won the county grand championship for cotton production for the second straight year and was awarded the $300 grand prize.

Maxey raised 6430 pounds of cotton on a five acre plot. He averaged 1,286 pounds of lint cotton per acre.

Other cash prize winners were: white cotton division, $100 apiece: H. D. Staten Jr., 1,196 pounds per acre; Jamie Trusty, 927, Frank J. Hood, 976; and McHaven Clanton, 1,174.

$100 winners among the Negroes were: Foster Lott, 1,159; Turnage Williams, 775; Albert Wright, 981; and Jim Golliday 913. $50 prizes were awarded to White farmers, Buck Little, Henry Dunn, M. S. Tilghman, Harold R. Bowen; and Negroes, Roosevelt Moss, Todie Adams, Harvey McFarland and Donie Willis.

Charles Carver, with 116 bushels per acre, was tops in corn production He was followed by Pirl Williams with 96 bushels. Negro winners were William Edmonds, 75 bushels and Donie Willis, 49 bushels. Each of the corn winners received $100.

Negro recipients of the certificates ved the barbeque included Ben Bridges, Dora Hamilton, the only woman winner in any group, Homer Thompson, O'Bryant Love, Alex Yates, Booger T. James Louis Hillis, oosevelt Moss and Frank Johnson.

The winners were chosen for their production on a five acre tract, with no limitations on fertilizer, seed irrigation etc. Contestants may use any method to increase production on their tract.

Members of the C. of C. Agriculture committee are: chairman, Clayton Carpenter, oines Defenbaugh, C. O. Sennett, Glen See, Roy Roebuck and J. D. Quinn.

Sen. Stennis commended Grenada County citizens for their well planned program to increase production with the cooperation and understanding of both races. He said he hoped other communities would follow Grenada's example.

He predicted that price supports would continue until 1956 but warned of acreage allotments.

Dr. Claude Walston, a member of the Grenada Negro Chamber of Commerce, spoke on behalf of the county Negroes and commende Sen. Stennis for his efforts in helping to solve the race problems of the South.

C. O. Sennett, Grenada County Agent introduced the guests and awarded the prizes. The Grenada County Farm Bureau helped to sponsor the festival. 4-H boys and girls ser-

Civic League Sponsors Christmas Lighting

The Chamber of Commerce has again asked the Civic Improvement League to sponsor the residential Christmas lighting of the homes. As of last year we are hoping there will not be a dark home in our beautiful little city.

Especially decorate your door way in such a way it will be attractive and inviting in the day as at night. Nothing is more beautiful than a lovely Christmas tree indoors or out.

There will be no prizes or competition of any kind. As we approach the birthday of our king, let's keep Christ in Christmas, in our hearts as well as our decorations.

Please do not abbreviate Christmas with an X. May we all cooperate in this scheme of beautiful lighted doorways. Lights will be turned on Dec. 10.

20 Percent More Cotton Ginned Than In '52

So far this year, with most of the cotton picked, four of the gins in Grenada County reported about a 20 percent increase in business this year over last year.

In Holcomb the Holcomb Planters Gin has ginned 3,000 bales and the Dan Hudson McDaniel gin 2,500 bales. This represents an increase of about 1,000 bales over 1952.

The Farmers Gin at Geeslin Corner has ginned 1,700 bales this year as compared to 1,300 last year.

ed at Jackson Printing Office in Grenada.

Mrs. Marion Underhill of Memphis and Mrs. Billy Turner and son Edwin of Carrollton made a tour of Gore Springs Saturday and were elated over the progress made during the past two years. These ladies will be remembered as Katherine and Dorothy Flam, each a graduate of Gore Springs School. The words of Mrs. Underhill were, 'I wouldn't take a million dollars for the opportunity of seeing the school buildings again.'

Friends of Guy Sulton are glad to know he is able to be up andenjoy better health following a long illness with surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Trusty Jr. and sons of Mobile are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Trusty Sr. and sons.

MAKIN' GOOD COOKIN GOOD LOOKIN'

Food—like a person—is judged first by appearance and it takes such a little doing to make the food—or the person—attractive. Now we are not going to try to give you the tricks for makin' the cook good lookin', but there are a number of appetite whetting tricks that we would like to share with you. Remember—easy does it.

The fruit cup might be topped with whole berries—a sprig of mint—or balls of fruit sherbet.

Soup can be dressed up with a sprinkling of minced parsley—a thin slice of lemon — or salted whipped cream.

Broiled meat may be garnished with broiled fruit. Jellied cranberry cut outs are perfect with poultry — stuffed prunes, applesauce or spiced apples compliment pork—mint jelly is a must for lamb—and ham is better with pineapple slices or spiced peaches.

As a rule vegetables don't need much decorating, but contrasting color makes for greater appetite appeal.

Salads lend themselves to decorating but don't over do it. Sprigs of watercress or parsley—strips of pimento or stuffed olives—green pepper rings—tomato wedges or cucumber slices—meatballs rolled in finely minced parsley—cherries—

[illegible] can be had more for the time of fruit or garnish. So here's to your success in "makin' good cookin' good lookin'."

Chance For All

Lesson for November 29, 1953

AN INTELLIGENT traveler in Spain writes to an American friend in 1953: "We have just returned from a six-day trip to Franco's paradise. Madrid is a modern city of beautiful parks, squares and circles with fountains playing, a modern university campus and splendid buildings. Alongside these modern structures one finds people living in caves dug back into clay banks; sometimes a wooden door has been fitted into the mouth of the cave and a pane of glass put in the door for light. The more elegant of these residences have the door whitewashed. As soon as the fields begin at the city's edge one sees men reaping wheat and barley with hand reap-hooks such as used in the days of Ruth and Boaz . . . We were told that there is nothing worth while outside Madrid. Nothing but 20 million people living in ignorance and economic slavery!" One has to see such a country to appreciate how in America we enjoy what is a heritage and a teaching of true Christianity.

Dr. Foreman

Men Are Not Equal, But—

The crushing of the poor by the rich is one of the sins specially set down in the Bible as hated by God. (See the Scripture for the week.) The crushing of the weak by the strong is a problem always with us; but in our country we do at least try to keep the doors of opportunity open for every one. Our Declaration of Independence says that all men are created equal; which is not a fact, we feel. It is our belief, however—and let it be remembered, a belief taught by the Bible—that every child born within our borders shall have a fair chance to develop every gift and capacity he has, to go as far as he can go and to do as much as he can do for his family and community. "Democracy" is a word of many good meanings; and the basic meaning is equality of opportunity.

For one thing, we try, at least in part, to see that no child shall be penalized in his education for being born where he was and not somewhere else. As a matter of fact, of course, not all schools are equally good. Some states have such poor schools, or such poor school laws, that children from there are handicapped in competition with children from states with better schools. But even where this is true, it is widely felt that this ought not to be. Educational leaders are not complacent about this state of things. Further, many states have equalized their school funds so that children born in remote sections will have just as well-equipped and well-staffed schools within reach, as children in the larger cities.

Fair Chance At Jobs

Another angle of equality of opportunity is a fair chance at jobs. Some one is sure to ask: What has religion got to do with this? Well, look at the Bible. Paul said that a man who will not work shall not eat—that was his rule. We all know the commandment, "Six days shalt thou labor," and we all have observed how important it is for the development of personality that a man or woman shall have work that suits his capacity and gives him a chance to be a producing member of society. So if men are cut off from the chance to work, or not allowed to compete for the kind of work for which they are fitted, religion says: This is wrong, whenever one of God's children is barred from a God-given right.

Fair Chance At Religion

There is another kind of equality of opportunity even more important than what has been mentioned. That is equality of opportunity in religion. "Freedom of Worship," as it is often called, is not just the legal right to worship under any church roof one pleases. It is the right to be faced with the choice God offers us in Christ and to share in his fellowship everywhere. It is not enough that your community has (as it does, no doubt) a variety of churches. The question is: Is every one in your community equally welcome in all these churches? Are there persons in your community who never come to church, because they have never been asked?

Commendations To Grenada From Greenwood Citizen

As you know, we, the American people, are prone to want to commend everything the government does when it applies to cutting out something for the other fellow. But, when they begin to take our own sugar-teat away from us, we start to hollering.

But, what I wanted to do was congratulate my old home town and county on their action in going ahead with the recreation project at Grenada Dam.

As soon as they found out that the government wasn't going to do it for them, they go out and do it for themselves. That is the American way and I am proud of my old county and my old town.

And, I believe that this is the way things should be.

Ellett Lawrence.

What the Oil and Gas Industry means to Mississippi

MORE JOBS – the production and pipe line segment of the industry alone employ more than 5000 Mississippians. The marketing segment employs an additional 15,000.

MORE MONEY IN CIRCULATION – to date, the oil and gas industry has spent over a billion dollars in Mississippi. Expenditures—exclusive of drilling costs are currently adding nearly $60 million to the state's economic bloodstream every year . . . .

WAGES & SALARIES	$18 million
LEASE RENTALS & ROYALTIES	$21 million
STATE & LOCAL TAXES	$12 million
PURCHASES OF GOODS AND SERVICES	$ 7 million

These constructive expenditures have played a large part in the rapid expansion of Mississippi's economy over the past decade. They are continuing to bolster business activity throughout the state . . . and the stimulating effect of oil and gas industry expenditures will increase as the development of Mississippi's resources goes forward.

The oil and gas industry is one of Mississippi's most important industries . . . one of truly statewide significance. Exploratory work has been done in all 82 counties, drilling in 78 counties. Pipelines assessed for ad valorem tax purposes at $85 million pay taxes to 74 Mississippi counties . . . . these pipelines [illegible] railroad, all electric utility, and all telephone assessments.

The oil and gas industry is made up of individual businessmen – called "independents" – and companies. Together, the various operators in Mississippi have raised this state from "zero" to a national rank of tenth in crude oil production and seventh in natural gas production. They have made this outstanding contribution to Mississippi's growth solely through their enterprise and their willingness to [illegible] large financial risks in the hope of realizing a profit. They have recorded these accomplishments [illegible] special dispensations from government . . . in fact, the oil and gas industry in Mississippi even pays directly for the operation of the state agency which regulates it. The work of the State Oil and Gas Board does not cost Mississippi taxpayers one cent.

The State of Mississippi shares in the benefits accruing from the enterprise and risks of the oil and gas people, receiving six per cent of the value of all the oil and gas produced. This is the [illegible] of the "severance" tax on both oil and natural gas, a levy paid by oil and gas producers in addition to all the other taxes normally paid by Mississippi businessmen.

Through its tax payments, constructive expenditures and accomplishments in the [illegible] of oil and gas resources, this one group—the men and [illegible] who [illegible] the industry—are helping to expand the future of all Mississippians. They are good citizens and [illegible] support of every progressive civic plan.

...if there were only ONE telephone in the world

If you had the only telephone in the world, you couldn't use it. There would be nobody else you could call.

The value of a telephone is in the great number of people you can reach with it. You can talk with almost anyone, anywhere—quickly, easily and at low cost.

Last week the number of telephones in this nation passed the 50,000,000 mark. That's more than there are in all the rest of the world. It figures out to about one telephone for every three people in this country.

Most of these telephones are served by local Bell Companies like Southern Bell. Nearly 9,000,000, however, are operated by 5300 other companies.

In no other nation is the telephone so available, so useful and so low in cost.

FAST GROWTH IN DIXIE...

The number of telephones in the areas served by Southern Bell has jumped from 1,863,204 at the beginning of 1946 to more than 4,200,000 today.

Miss Mina Hill Becomes Bride Of William Dozier Parker

One of the most beautiful and fashionable weddings of the year took place here Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Presbyterian Church, uniting in marriage Miss Mina Hill, neice of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Small Hill and William Dozier Parker, the son of Mrs. W. D. Parker of Greenwood and the late Mr. Parker of Moorhead.

Rev. W. Taylor Clarke, minister, officiated. Many lighted white tapers held aloft by tall floor candelabrum cast a soft glow over the traditional white and green bridal decorations. Princess baskets held mammoth arrangements calla lilies, lillies of the valley and ferns, and trailing the choir rail was a graceful arrangement of ferns. Graceful white satin and tulle bows with white blossoms marked the with-in-the-ribbon pews.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. John Sage at the organ and soloists Miss Sue Vandiver and Mrs. E. R. Pleasants. A choir of mixed voices sand the Bridal Chorus from 'The Rose Maiden'.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. F. S Hill, the bride was radiently lovely as she entered the church.

She was attired in an exjuisite wedding gown of chantilly lace over white satin. Fashioned with a deep portrait neckline, the gown had a yoke of illusion joined to the fitted basque with a pattern of lace.

Medallions embellished with iridescent sequins and pearls. Long sleeves ended in calla points and the buff-out skirt of lace was poised over starched petti-coats, featuring a fan shaped panel on center front and extending into a cathedral train. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow throated orchids arranged with lilies of the valley. Her veil of illusion fell gracefully from a coronet of pearls.

Mrs. William Liles of Jackson, nee Miss Margaret Bradley of Grenada was matron of honor. She was lovely in an emerald green nylon strapless formal, which featured a full skirt over hoops and a velvet bolero. She carried white chrysanthemums with croton leaves and green velvet streamers. Her headdress was a semi halo of green velvet with tiny vel...

Groomsmen, who served as ushers were Dave Nichols of Money, Bremus Huggins, Jr. of Vicksburg, Simpson Hemphill of Greenwood and Norrell Noble of Grenada.

Guy Green III was ring bearer and he was attired as a miniature groomsman in black tails, white shirt and bow tie.

Mrs. Parker, mother of the groom, was gowned in a lovely cherry red formal of velvet. Her corsage was of deep toned orchids.

Reception

After the ceremony the brides aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Hill were hosts at an elaborate reception at the Monte Cristo. The rooms were thronged with scores of prominent guests from several towns in Mississippi and Tennessee, including many prominent Grenadians. Many of the feminine guests were attired in lovely formal gowns, jewels and furs lending even more beauty to the already lavish decorations which formed a background for the receiving line and the brides table where cake nuts and mints and champaigne punch were served.

After the reception the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in New Orleans. They will be at home in Greenwood. The bride wore a traveling costume of coral wool with matching accessories and a hat to match her suit. Her corsage was of orchids.

WHAT I AM THANKFUL FOR

For better health; a nice place to live; for my son, Guy Mann to be able to go home from the hospital after having to suffer and stay 7 long weeks. I am thankful for the good doctors and the wonderful nurses. Thankful for all my children and grandchildren.

Billy Ray and Walter Lynn Dowdle give thanks for everything on this Thanksgiving Day. We are trusting our Lord to guide us.

ENTERTAIN STUDENT NURSES

The Womans Hospital Auxiliary gave a party on Thursday, Nov. 19 honoring the new student nurses at Grenada Hospital at the lovely home of Mrs. W. E. Brown. The social affair was an informal dinner and Mrs. Brwon, social chairman of the Auxiliary was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Saunders and Mrs. Sam Simmons, Jr. Another auxiliary committe, Mesdames J. B. Dubois, A. N. Peebles and W. H. Felts, also assisted with the dinner and the social hour.

The guests were seated at quartet tables in the living room and music was given by Mrs. Jack Murphey who played a ukulele much to the delight of those present.

GRENADA BULLDOGS FETED BY MRS. SAUNDERS

On Tuesday evening of last week, Mrs. W. H. Saunders entertained the Grenada High football team at a banquet at the Monte Cristo. Two tables were arranged for the 48 guests, and a color scheme of white with blue trim and bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums completed the decorations. A football on the 40 yard line, accented by blue streamers, graced both tables.

A four course turkey banquet was served.

Seated at the small table were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hathorn, Coach and Mrs. Bud Gerrard, assistant Coach and Mrs. Ellard, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Ketchum and Dr. and Mrs. S. W. James.

FOREMAN BABY IS CHRISTENED

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goss of Tie Plant attended the Christening of their grandson, Calev Aitis Foreman III, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Foreman, Jr. of Memphis.

The christening took place at 2 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 22, 1953 in the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr and Mrs. C. A. Foreman in Greenwood.

The baby was christened by his great uncle, retired U. S. Navy chaplain, Capt. J. H. Brooks of Jackson. Mrs. Foreman is the former Miss Jimmie B. Goss.

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts 4:20

A bunch of Grenada young men went off together with the Headquarters Company, 140th USFA, during World War I and remained together until the Armistice. Among those who went together, were Tom Irby and Pete Embry. Tom has made a pile of money in Oklahoma; Pete has accumulated a pile of money here in Grenada. Both of them have sense enough to enjoy their money. Neither gets high blood pressure trying to make any more money. Pete enjoys his resting at home and listening to radio and looking at television. Tom enjoys his by taking his wife along and seeing the big world. He and wife just recently returned from a tour of Europe, including a revisiting of the scenes of Headquarters Company's itinerary in France, from Brest to Valdohon. They bought a small, economical English-made car in England and used it on their trip and before returning to the U. S. turned the car over to their son and daughter in Germany. About two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Irby made a world-wide trip. They have an outstandingly smart daughter, the only girl who ever was graduated from M.I.T. in Boston. This girl and her soldier husband are the ones who got the car from their parents. Mrs. Irby, fortunately, seems to enjoy the traveling experiences just like Tom does. It is a smart man who has enough, knows he has enough and dont worry himself into the grave seeking to get more.

Sims Holland and wife up in Grenada Saturday from Oxberry to settle for rent on some cotton land from Mabel, settled with the GCW for their subscription at the same time.

God Almighty has indeed "blessed this section which has had simultaneously the best cotton yield and the best season to gather the crop. Everyone should have a pile of money.

I have not counted them, but expect we have received 150 or 200 renewals recently. The most distant came from J. Russell Wright, a haberdasher in Oxford, Pa. We appreciat him no end, but why he pays for a paper 'way down here in po' misipi, we just dont know.

Just had a letter from the director of the National Municipal League in New York saying nice things about our effort to keep the CM form of government here. I was more interested of course, in keeping Dr. Clanton here in office.

Pouv Costilow was among the many who renewed Saturday, and so was William Jolliff of Sweatman and dont forget Guy Smart of Beat 4.

As usual, the GCW has plenty of Christmas cards this year. Not too fancy, but cheap. If you want some high class cards, which costs a lot more, we have a wide selection to order from.

Wonder how Bohannon Kincaid is getting along?

Also wonder how Will Criss and Bob Carpenter are doing these days?

His mama called and had us send the GCW to Donald Duboise of Bell Garden, Calif., a suburb of Los Angeles. The GCW Gets Around.

And there is the tale of the colored woman, who wanted some Fenomint tablets from the tall, willowy girl at McClure's Drug Store, asked for some 'cement' pills, or, at least, that's what the tall, willowy girl clerk thought she said.

Tupelo, Mississippi Boy Wins $1,000 Lion Oil Scholarship

"Good Citizenship Begins at Home," Essay Stresses . . .
15 Other Mississippi and Alabama Students
Named $25 Merit Award Winners in Zone "C"

Miss Mary Eleanor Long, Teacher-Sponsor

A deeply analytical Tupelo High School senior has been awarded one of three $1,000 scholarships in the Lion Oil Student Essay Contest just completed. He is Earle W. Baughman, Jr., 16, of Tupelo. Active in school and church affairs, an athlete and Life Boy Scout, Earle pointed out in his essay that the basis of world relationships rests finally on local attitudes and actions. Earle hopes to use his scholarship to help achieve a lifelong ambition to become a doctor.

Miss Mary Eleanor Long, Earle's teacher, who was awarded $200 in cash, has sponsored students every year since the Lion Oil Scholarship Fund was established. On behalf of the school, Principal A. P. Bennett accepted a $100 cash award for the purchase of library books.

Ninety other high school students and teacher-sponsors in three zones received $25 cash Merit Awards for outstanding essays on "The Kind of Citizen I Want to Be." Since the Scholarship Program began four years ago, Southern students and teachers have been awarded 736 prizes worth more than $71,000 . . . to help promote higher educational standards.

Earle W. Baughman, Jr., Major Award Winner

Arkansas Girl, Tennessee Boy Win in Zones "A" and "B"

Barbara Holt, 17, is a senior at Mt. Ida, Ark. High School. A talented musician, as well as an outstanding student, she plans to use her scholarship to study Fine Arts at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.

John M. Woodward, 16, is a sophomore at Clarksville, Tenn. High School. Active in student affairs, John likes to spend his spare time "tinkering," and plans to use his Lion Oil scholarship to study engineering.

Special Notice for Students and Teachers!

The current Lion Oil Student Essay Contest closes November 30, 1953. All high school students in designated areas served by Lion are eligible. Essays must be 500 words or less on "What My Home State Offers Young People Today." Awards include three $1,000 Scholarships, forty-five Merit Awards of $25 each, and $100 Cash Prizes to Scholarship winners' schools. Teacher-sponsors of winners also share in prizes.

The Teacher Essay Contest on "What Are My Responsibilities As a Teacher?" offers three $1,200 graduate Scholarships; three $400 cash Travel Grants; thirty-three $75 cash Merit Awards. For complete details on both contests, get Rules Booklets from your principal, from your Lion Oil Dealer, or write the Lion Oil Scholarship Fund.

Why The Scholarship Fund Was Established

Lion is an integral part of the South, employing more than 2,700 persons, who receive annually over $16,000,000 in wages and benefits.

Lion Oil manufactures more than sixty petroleum products which keep the wheels of Southern industry, transportation and agriculture spinning. Lion's nitrogen fertilizers enrich the soil of Southern farms . . . help Southern farmers produce more and better crops.

The Scholarship Fund is Lion Oil Company's way of saying, "We believe in the South . . . are eager to assist its sons and daughters . . . our good neighbors. We're proud to be 'Home Folks—Good Neighbors'"!

ENJOY A HALF HOUR OF MUSIC AND FUN ON "SUNDAY DOWN SOUTH" EVERY SUNDAY 5:00-5:30 P.M. OVER THE LION RADIO NETWORK.
